United States Attorney Deborah R. Gilg and the Nebraska State Patrol announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release:

On April 5, 2010, Roy William Plummer, age 50, of LaVeen, Arizona, was sentenced by United States District Court Judge Laurie Smith Camp to a six month prison term following Plummer's conviction for Conspiracy. In addition to the prison term, Plummer was ordered to serve three years of supervised release, and ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $52,000.

During the period of January 1, 2007, through August 1, 2007, the Defendant conspired with two other individuals, Terry Bain of Nebraska and Marty Ellis of Arizona, to transport in interstate commerce various items of stolen property valued at approximately $125,000, including, but not limited to, various trailers, ATV's, commercial welders, commercial generators, light plants and skid steers for purposes of sale of said items in Nebraska, with the intention of participating in the profits of said sales. Plummer's participation in the conspiracy involved the providing of a staging and storage area for the stolen property at his residence/ranch in Laveen, AZ. Plummer further assisted in the loading of the stolen property on trailers for transport to the State of Nebraska by co-conspirator Bain, where the property would ultimately be sold by Mr. Bain at auction houses and to various other individuals in Nebraska.
